WEST COAST TOUR

Marcus Eaton and drummer Kevin Rogers embark on a 6-city tour with Dave Matthews' guitarist Tim Reynolds and his band TR3 starting this Thursday April 1. Marcus and Kevin will be playing songs from their new album, to be released this summer. They kick it off with a Benefit Show for Haiti / Doctors Without Borders at the Red Devil Lounge in San Francisco on April 1. In addition to TR3 headlining, this show also features a set by Alma Desnuda.

NEW ALBUM RELEASE THIS SUMMER

Marcus Eaton's new album showcases his wide range of guitar skills and innovative talents on both acoustic and electric, featuring 10 stunning new songs that range from hard hitting rock to soft acoustic pieces, all of the tracks utilizing only guitar tones to create a rich tapestry of sound.

The album introduces drummer Kevin Rogers, an extremely versatile musician who incorporates odd meter, poly-rhythms and deep pocket grooves to create perfect compliments to the songs.

Bassist Garrett Sayers, who plays with The Motet, Dwele and Kyle Hollingsworth, lends his substantial talents to this album. Garrett also played on Marcus 2006 release, Story of Now. For full tour information, music, video and more news about the album visit www.marcuseaton.com
